Information About Riviera Dream:

Riviera Dreams offers an exclusive collection of state-of-the-art single and two bedroom apartments, perfect for the needs of young couples and small families. Located within Dubai International City in the Central Business District, the area is surrounded by beautifully themed architectural designs and world class attractions such as the Forbidden City of China and the incredible 1.4m long Dragon Mart. As the Central District is the nerve centre of Dubai International City's business and commercial activities, Riviera Dreams is an ideal location to provide immediate access to the world of culture and commerce. A prestigious residential area surrounds the Central District, which is only 15 minutes by road to the centre of Dubai. Representing different architectural styles and cultures of the world, the area is surrounded by gardens and convenient facilities including shopping centres and play areas. Offering a total residential solution, Dubai International City's future plans include hospitals, post offices, schools and other support services for this vibrant community. At the heart of this fashionable yet convenient location, you will find the apartment you have been longing for.

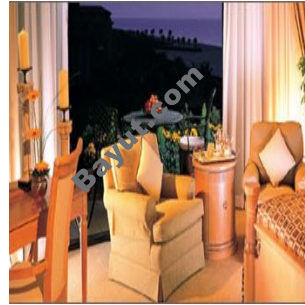

Riviera Dreams is a collection of spacious one and two bedroom apartments, specially designed with the needs of the family in mind. Each bedroom has an en-suite bathroom and built-in wardrobes while all apartments offer a laundry room facility. Beautiful balconies complement every apartment, some of which provide views of Dubai's magnificent skyline. The towering entrance and lobby area of Riviera Dreams is majestic and breath-taking in its appearance, maintaining the B&M's tradition and reputation for grand residential properties. As always, security is a primary focus, with your privacy and comfort being of paramount importance. With this in mind, all residents have direct access control for entry into the building, and a convenient drop off area has been provided in front of the building. Three large express elevators supported by an additional large cargo lift for easy movement of large items, allows Riviera Dreams to cater to your every need. With beautifully landscaped gardens accompanied by an abundance of retail outlets and restaurants, Riviera Dreams provides the ideal location for you and your family.
